FOREWORD

With a backward glance and a wee bit of nostalgia the students of the beautiful three storied building of Reidsville High School on Franklin Street moved book-bag and baggage to their modernistic one story building on South Park Drive.

Fond memories linger in the hearts and minds of those who climbed those steep steps day after day for one, two, or three years-Memories of pep rallies on those front steps, assembly programs and plays in the auditorium, home coming parades, field days and practicing in the stadium for commencement. These and a thousand other things make one CHERISH the memory of the OLD yet SALUTE the NEW for these are truly

PROGRESS

Reidsville Senior High Is New, Different, And Exciting

The opening August 30 of the new Reidsville Senior High School was an event greatly looked forward to by most of the nearly 600 students registering. The students were provided maps to help them get oriented and find classes easier.

The overall plan consists of eight sections, or building, connected to each other by covered walks and corridors, thus forming one integrated building. The entire building is one story, with outside walks and inside corridors. The walls of the halls are tile and the floors are terrazzo.

Building I is directly to the left of the entrance and consists of sixteen instructional class rooms and a large room for club meetings. The ceilings of the rooms and halls are covered with acoustical tile, and the floors are terrazzo. The interior walls of the class rooms are gray and are complemented with doors and wood work of bright colors. Each classroom also contains a small office for the teacher.

Building II houses the library and administration. Included in the library are a conference room for students, and audio-visual room for showing films and slides, a magazine room, a supply room for storing records, projectors, record players and other equipment, several listening booths for hearing records, and a professional library for the teachers. Lounge furniture is provided in the magazine department.

The administration area contains the office of the principal, the guidance counselor, and the school secretary. Also in this section are a reception center, teachers' lounge, conference room, supply and storage rooms, student store, health and guidance rooms.

Building III contains the commercial education classrooms, a large study hall, and a modern home economics room. Also included in Building III are the biology, chemistry, and physic rooms, each with accompanying, ultra-modern laboratories.

Buildings IV and V, when constructed, will provide space for a large auditorium and music department.

Perhaps one of the most popular buildings is Building VI, in which one finds a lovely cafeteria equipped with many modern facilities. The dining area is resplendent with its attractive furnishings and modern lighting. The kitchen with its many conveniences and latest equipment is truly the pride of the cafeteria staff.

Another popular area is the gymnasium located in Building VII. The entrance of the gym is just to the right of the cafeteria. In the vestibule of the gym is a ticket office and a stairway leading to the basement which contains a concession stand, the dressing rooms, showers, and storage space. The gym has interior walls of yellow and gray with a hard wood floor.

The back entrance of the gym leads to the shops, which constitute Building VIII. Here are located the agricultural and industrial arts departments.

Other features are an elaborate blower system which is combined with the heating system to circulate air in the classrooms and an inter-communications system which provides means whereby the administrative offices may have contact with all buildings at any time.

Reidsville is indeed fortunate to have such facilities to offer to the youth of the community.

TYPING CLASS

We, the Senior Class of Reidsville Senior High School, dedicate our 1962 RENOCASHI to MRS. MARGARET MURRAY, whom we esteem for her integrity, admire for her unfailing energy and sincerity, and honor for her service to all pupils.

DEDICATION

FROM EDITOR TO DEDICATION

THEN In her Senior year at Reidsville High School MARGARET JONES was Editor-in-Chief of Renocahi which included seventy pages.

NOW The Seniors of Reidsville Senior High School fondly dedicate their one hundred forty-four page renamed Renocashi to MRS. MARGARET JONES MURRAY, one of their beloved English teachers.

THEN The Renocahi was dedicated to Miss Kate Conley.

NOW Miss Conley is the adviser to the yearbook.

THEN There were sixty-nine Seniors.

NOW There are one hundred fifteen Seniors.

CLASSES

Many happy hours are spent at Reidsville Senior High School. Studying and working claim the major part of all students' time. With a little over five hundred students it is possible to become acquainted with almost every one. However quality of friendship is as important as quantity. New friends are made in classes, clubs, at ball games, sock hops, and pep rallies. Each year old friends move on either by graduation or by moving out of town. One class must leave every year by graduation. This year the Senior Class has the distinction of being the first to graduate from the newly formed REIDSVILLE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL. All the members of the class leave with many cherished memories of these—

ON AND OFF GUARD

ACTIVITIES

Reidsville Senior High School has twelve active organizations. The Student Organization heads these groups. Besides the regular monthly meetings many clubs have altruistic projects. Chief among these is help given to the Salvation Army at Christmas by the student body.

The Latin Club and French Club print their own newspapers.

Members of the Speech Club speak to civic clubs.

The Future Farmers win parliamentary procedure and judging contests.

Library Club members serve the entire school by working in the library.

Home Economics students help with parties and banquets.

The Honor Society has a tea for mothers of its members and the faculty.

The Key Club sponsors the school directory.

The Chorus sings for many public gatherings.

The Band performs at all football games and special occasions.

The Bus drivers transport the pupils to school.

The Renocashi staff prepares this yearbook.

Pictures of the members of these clubs may be found on the following pages:

SPORTS

The athletic program at the new Senior High School has made few alterations in the change-over from the old to the new.

At the old school last spring the good pitching led by J. Revis sparked the baseball team to a successful season. Predictions are for an even better season this spring.

A new practice field for football made it convenient for the long afternoon drills. The Golden Lions ended the season by being defeated by the Canton Bears in the Triple A play-offs. T. Balsley and J. Niemczura were captains of the team coached by C. B. Barham, S. Basinger, and J. W. Knight (Head).

Moving into a beautiful modern gymnasium spurred the basketball team to win first place in the conference at the end of five games with 5-0 score, but Wentworth broke the winning streak by downing Reidsville in the sixth game. The season ended

Also for the first time in years girls of the upper classes are offered a half unit credit in gym.

These are truly changing and challenging times.

FEATURES

The Features Section of Renocashi exemplifies the beauty and talent of the students of Reidsville Senior High School.

In the Fall the football team chooses five contestants for Home Coming Queen. All of these contestants are presented at the Home Coming game and the student chosen by the football team is crowned Queen.

The seniors select the boys and girls they wish for their twelve senior superlatives. The pictures of these students were made this year at the Frank Penn home.

The Presidents of clubs, classes, and organizations as well as the heads of activities choose attractive girls to sponsor in this section. These twenty comely maidens are pictured wearing white sweaters and pearls.

The seniors write their own prophecy, statistics, poems, and the like which are printed in this section.

The "ever-loving" snaps wind up this section.

The "flappers" and the "dandy" standing by the "Model A" which is still used by the gentleman in the picture on the opposite page illustrate the year-book theme:

STATISTICS

DAVID YOUNT

In the fall of 1958 two hundred seven shy, young, and carefree Freshmen entered Reidsville High School. Today these same students minus eighty-two who fell by the wayside have become dignified seniors. This is the first class to graduate from the new Reidsville Senior High School.

The 115 members of the Class of 1962 has a combined height of 636 feet with a waistline of 2979 inches. The hair of this composite group is 50% brunette, 26% blonde, and 24% additional colors. The senior is 5.73 feet tall and has an average waistline of 26.84 inches.

The typical senior may be found spending his afternoons and evenings listening to Connie Francis and Elvis Presley, his favorite singers, and to "Hit the Road, Jack", his favorite song. The more industrious members of the class may be found reading novels by their favorite author, Charles Dickens. Football is their favorite sport. The seven married members of the class are often found at home receiving additional help on their homework.

On Sunday one may find 36% of the class going to Baptist Churches, 26% to Methodist Churches, 9% to Presbyterian Churches, 16% to Christian Churches, and 13% to other Churches.

With eyes 20% green, 41% blue, 32% brown, and 7% hazel, this class is looking to the future with great expectations.

Iran
June 20, 1972

Dear Pat,

I was sorry to learn that you, too, missed our class reunion. I was unable to leave the site of our current excavations here in Iran. We had just opened a new series of royal tombs, and there was a tremendous amount of work which had to be done immediately. I was very proud when I read about your being selected to head the U. S. mission to the U. N. I can understand why you were unable to leave New York.

I received a letter from Becky Humphrey, who has taken over Miss Wootton's thankless job. She tried to give me an idea about what our former classmates have been doing.

As you know, several members of our class became teachers. Most of our teachers remained in the Reidsville school system. Sue Allison, Pat Dietch, and Janet Wise are working in the elementary grades, while Frances Tysinger and Harriet Davis are at the junior high school. Joan McCullen has become the able principal of our old alma mater. (Boy, I'm glad I went to high school when I did!) Diane Keens is the new gym teacher, Tommie Ward now conducts the chorus, and Maestro Larry Murphy has replaced poor Mr. Moore as band director. Linda Dodson and Cliff Baggett are both members of the U. N. C. faculty.

Did you know that Billy Dove and Paul Smith have finally gotten control of General Motors? I understand they are planning to revolutionize the automobile industry. I'm afraid that David Diamond, who recently won the Indianapolis 500, will have to be weary of his old pals James Travis, Jimmy Setliff, G. T. Collie, and Carroll Garrett. They are now the law in the Reidsville area.

Many of the girls in our class have become successful secretaries and homemakers. Grey Walker, Jo Ann Vawter, Betty Lou Wright, and Geraldine Stone do commercial work for businesses in the Reidsville area. Frances Teague, Connie Knowles, and Kitty Moore are working in your "neck of the woods." Betty Johnson is "girl Friday" for Frank Duncan, owner of Rand Shoes Inc. and Joyce Simpson is working for the governor of Utah. Ellen Williams married her M. D. Ann Bailey, Jamie Borland, Ferra Jo Hall, Ann Gunn, Annie Lee Bray, Libby Stone, Mary Anne Billingsley, Carolyn Carter, Vivian Rowe, Hazel Echols, Elaine Clark, (also teaches music), Becky Lovelace, and Nancy Peoples are all happily married. Charles Anna Walker, Toneka Gann, Sandra Delapp, Gloria Murray, and Joyce McKinney are secretaries for their own busy husbands.

Mac Chapman always said that he would be a big hit---he's now a champion fighter. I understand he bent a few teeth in a recent bout. He had to avoid orthodontist Frank Rakestraw during the whole reunion.

Lawrence Warf, who started out as a dime-store manager, now owns the chain he formerly worked for. I am sending you a clipping from the London Times. It tells all about the new commerce building that architect Bobby Pugh designed. Betti Bramlett is now chairman of the board of Bell Telephone Co.

Several of the boys in our class have successful service careers. Jerry McBryde is a marine; Lynwood Sheridan and Jerry Bray are air force pilots; Cary Ware is an army man; and Bobby Childrey is in the navy. (I wonder if he ever did learn to swim.)

Do you remember how Betsy Burton used to tell us that she would be our class's first "jail bird"? She fell short of her goal and became a commercial artist instead. I always knew Pender Grogan would replace Bob Hope. He and Carol Keith, the big star at Warner Brothers', are doing a picture together. Shirley Moran and Sandra Clymer have opened a new beauty shop in Denver.

Donnie Chilton is the world's most famous big game hunter. Jerry Smothers is now president of the American Medical Association. Joyce Watt and Linda Gardner are medical technicians. Lloyd Smith is a medical records librarian and Carolyn Williams is an X-ray technician. Maxine Thomas, Mary Turner, Maxine Thore, Barbara Whitfield, and Toni Chaney (who went to the Congo as a missionary) are all nurses.

Cecil Ivey, Danny Somers, and Tom Hardy are big business men. They own the liveliest resort in Las Vegas. Joe Niemczura whose book HOW TO PLAY SNEAKY POKER is well over the three million mark, also lives in Las Vegas. Tommy Balsley surprised everyone by becoming a Wall Street Stockbroker. I wish Mr. Whittenton could see him now! Don Holiday is now directing his own Dixieland group.

Ronnie Brown has become a diesel mechanic. John Foil, a botany professor at State College, is doing research for the government these days. Glenda Smith is an airplane hostess. Nancy Chilton and Sarah Jo Coates are serving humanity as social workers.

Faye Pegram and Danny Rudd, our class's only two lawyers, are both campaigning for public office.

Our class can boast of quite a few engineers. Mark Horne has become one of the country's leading nuclear experts. Melvin Strickland, James Colvin, Tommy Stevens, and Jerry Standahl, our electrical "outfits," have charged their way to fame. Robert Osborne has a top position with Canco, as does Claude Somers with Boeing Aircraft. Sammy Gibbs and Roger Travis have recently completed a huge irrigation project on the Congo River.

I understand that Jim Melvin uses his great professional pull everyday. He has become a dentist. Johnny Dixon, who always wanted to become a "boolie", now owns Churchill Downs in Kentucky. Janet Link is a professional camp counselor in Washington State.

Several R.S.H. graduates are in the literary field. Gene Hunt is a U.P.I. foreign correspondent. Frank Montgomery is sports editor for the Review. Susan Manning's new book is just off the press. Alanson Huntsberry is a library administrator in Charlotte.

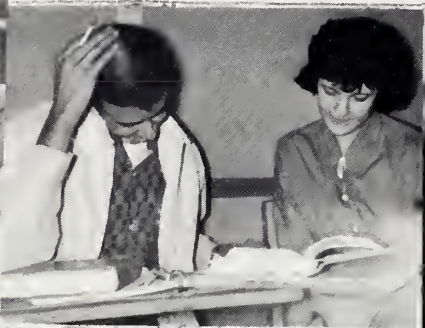

Lastly, there are Billy Herndon and Reather Hinson. These two long ago decided to be professional bums. One of them, however, inherited quite a lot of money. Now they're the richest bums in the state.

I hope we'll be able to see each other at our next class reunion in 1982.

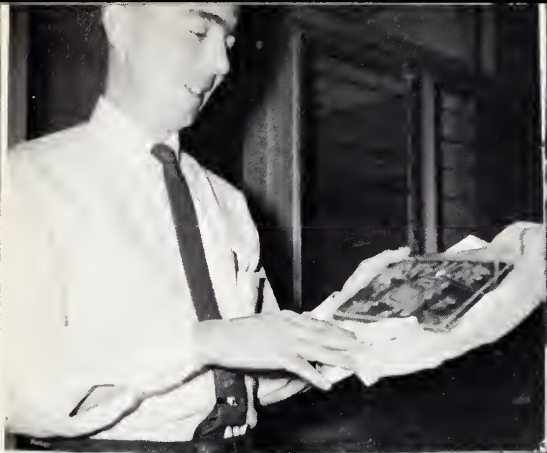

Sincerely,
Gertrude

OUR CREED

To train our minds and learn all we can,
To understand and love our fellowman,
To do our best in everything we do
With faith in God and in our country, too.
As the Reidsville Senior High graduates of '62,
These are the goals which we will pursue.
May we have the strength to reach our goals
That our lives with happiness and fullness unfold.

-Becky Humphrey

POSTSCRIPT

The threshold past,
The door once closed,
It n'er will open again.
The years that we have ended
Like smoke have fled away,
But yet they live
And always will
In memory---each day.

Editor's note:

Many hours, days, weeks, and months have been spent in preparation of this, your 1962 RENOCASHI.

Without the help of my adviser and the staff this annual would not have been possible. I do hope that you, my Reidsville Senior High classmates, enjoy this yearbook as much as I enjoyed working on it for you.
